

Microsoft Certified IT Professional (MCITP)

Course Overview:

The new Microsoft Certified IT Professional (MCITP) credential lets you highlight your specific area of expertise. Now, you can easily distinguish yourself as an expert in database administration, database development, or business intelligence.

The following are the three main areas covered by the Microsoft Certified IT Professional (MCITP) certifications.

- IT Professional: Database Developer
- IT Professional: Database Administrator
- IT Professional: Business Intelligence Developer

All courses cover all the major topics of their respective areas. Achieving any of the above certification proves that the candidate is professional in that particular area and is up to the date with the latest technologies.

IT Professional: Business Intelligence Developer

Course Exams:

Exam 70-446: PRO: Designing a Business Intelligence Solution by Using Microsoft SQL Server 2005

Course Material:

The course material used throughout this course is the official Microsoft material (MOC).

Course Duration and Fees:

This course will be covered over a period of 12 weeks. The fee is Euro 1,950 which includes original MOC and exam.

Course Prerequisites:

The student should have a good background in SQL Server.

Job Opportunities:

Being MCITP certified in any area there are an immense number of job opportunities that will launch the candidate to extremely interesting and challenging careers. The following is a short list of job positions that can be achieved easily once any MCITP certification is obtained.

- Senior Technical Architects
- Consultants
- Technical Trainers
- Database Developers
- Database Administrators
- Business Intelligence Developers
- Business Intelligence Consultants