

Visa Fees

Airport Transit Visa (Category A)	€ 60
Transit Visa (Category B)	€ 60
Short-Stay Visa (Category C)	€ 60
Group Visa (Categories A, B and C)	€ 60 + € 1 per person

Notes:

1. The aforementioned fees shall be paid at the Consulate of Malta in any country, where such a representation exists and where an application for a Schengen visa is made.
2. Fees, which are to be paid upon application, are non-refundable
3. The fee for the issuing of a Schengen visa shall be charged in Euros or the equivalent in US Dollars or the national currency of the country where the application for the issue of such visa is made and as determined by the Consulate of Malta.
4. Schengen visas are issued free of charge to:
 - (a) an accompanying spouse and children under 21 years of age of a EU national or of a EEA national;
 - (b) children under six years of age;
 - (c) school pupils, students, post graduate students and accompanying teachers who undertake trips for the purpose of study or educational training; and
 - (d) researchers from third countries travelling within the European Community for the purpose of carrying out scientific research. as defined in the Recommendation 2005/761/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 28 September 2005 to facilitate the issue by the Member States of uniform short-stay visas for researchers from third countries travelling within the Community for the purpose of carrying out scientific research.
5. A fee reduction or waiver for nationals of a third country may also be granted as a result of a visa facilitation agreement concluded between the European Community and that third country consistent with the Community's overall approach to visa facilitation agreements. Such exemptions are given to Russian nationals following the conclusion of the EU-Russian Federation Visa Facilitation Agreement. As of 1st January 2008, similar bilateral visa facilitation agreements are expected to enter into force with Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Serbia and Ukraine.